UNIQUE CASE IN FEDERAL COURT

for Alleged Breach of Contract.

Stenographer Sues Business Mar

CONDUCTOR DAVIS IS FINED

Judge Waddill Assesses Him $20 for Obstructing Delivery of

The United States District Court, Judge Edmund Waddill, Jr., sitting, was engaged yesterday in hearing a of contract, the style of the proceeding being Hinds vs. Warden.

The plaintiff, Miss Neilie E. Hinds, of Philadolphia, alleges in her declara-tion that she was and is an expertstonographer, and that at the Instance, of the defendant, Henry Warden, of the Fredericksburg, and as the result of " s written offer made by him, sho entered his employ in 1964. She declares further that the salary agreed upon ter to her the defendant stated that he would also provide by a codicil to his will, that at his death she should have $5,000 additional. Continuing, she sets out that after a period of about one year she was discharged, and now she is suing for non-performance of the alleged contract. Both the parties were in court yesterday, represented by strong lawyers, and anumber of winesses were examined and many written documents were put in evidence. ter to her the defendant stated that Move of Defendant.

When the testimony was all in, Messrs. Win. E. Carter, of Fredericksburg, and Robt. Il Talley, of this city, representing the defendant, moved the court to take the case from the jury, and to instruct them to bring in a verdlet for the defendant. The jury, and to instruct them to bring in a verdlet for the defendant. The jury, men were excused, and this motion who being argued by counsel when court adjourned until 10 o'clock this moriling. The plaintiff is represented by Messrs. Scott and Buchanan, of this city. If the motion of the defendant shall prevail this will end the case. If not the argument will proceed to-day before the jury. It was the contention of the defendant that the plaintiff was discharged from his employ because he alieged that she falled to do the work in the manner agreed upon.

It was shown in court by document

Judge Waddill yesterday disposed of the case against Robt Davis, a street car conductor of the city, charged with obstructing and retarding the deliv-ery of the United States mail. Davis pleaded gullty, and was fined $20 by the court.

provided by the separate car law for white passengers only. The conductor ordered the carrier to move to the colored section. He declined to do so, and was arrested and turned over to the police. Jones was on a delivery trip and had his malibag with him. The delivery of mall was delayed until he secured his release. Hence the decision of the court.

Federal Indictments. The grand jury in the United States Court yesterday found the following true bills: United States va. J. B. Braxion, charged with lending money on a pension certificate held by Jno. Newton. Both Me parties are colored. Annie Maud Young and Clara Rose, alias Clara Turner, of Fredericksburg, charged with sending through the United States mail a letter which contained obscene matter.

Police Board Will Take Up Question at Meeting To-Night, tion at Meeting To-Night.

The Board of Police Commissioners will meet in regular session this evening in the office of Chief of Police. The rousine work will be transacted, and then the question of the purchase of horses for the mounted squad will be taken un. Thus far but two horses have been bought. Officer Smallwood is using one of them in the West End, and Officer Matt is prancing around on the other one in the East End. The board hopes to be able to have all twelve "nags" ready when the new First Station is opened about the flyst of May.
